

Fall Announcement of Hartford Temple of Fashion.

For the past two weeks we have been busy arranging our stock for the inspection of our friends and customers. Now that we are ready, we inform you through the medium of printer's ink. We present you facts, as we have neither time nor inclination to use our space in presenting to our trade funnygraphs that would not entertain the close, careful buyer. OUR BUSINESS CREED:—We believe in making every effort to buy Goods at right prices, well knowing that "GOODS WELL BOUGHT ARE HALF SOLD." We believe in SELLING GOODS AT RIGHT PRICES, knowing that the public contains some pretty good judges of VALUE. We believe finally in blowing our own horn. No one else seems willing to do it for us; besides, we don't think anyone else could do it as well—so here it goes:

BLAST ONE: A Cheerful Store.

BLAST TWO: Goods Well Bought.

BLAST THREE: Goods Sold Fairly.

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

We ask special attention to this line. To dress well is more the result of good judgment and taste than the mere lavish use of money. Our new stock of Fall Dress Goods is adapted to fill the wants of those who, having slender incomes, still desire to make their appearance creditable. Our experience and relation with manufacturers enables us this season to present a line of Dress Goods unapproachable in style, quality and price.

All wool-filling Dress Goods at 9 cents—all shades. All wool-filling-diagonal Dress Goods, 12 cents—worth 15 cents.

36 inch all-wool filling Dress Goods at 18 cents—actually worth 20 cents.

36 inch same, silk finish, at 25 cents—regular price 35 cents.

36 inch strictly wool every way, 40 cents—(a hard hitter, worth 50 cents.) 50 cents buys 20 styles in plaid and stripe imported Dress Goods.

Handsome line of black and pure wool Henriettas from 37 cents to $1.35 per yard. Our line by far exceeds any line of Dress Goods carried in Hartford. They are stylish and popular sellers, as the patterns that daily go out of our house prove.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

We are beyond question leaders. If you want a stylish hat, trimmed by one who knows her business, you should not fail to call on us. Miss Bibb will take pains to see that your hat is stylish and becoming. Her long experience in the city, and our success last season proves that she can please those that heretofore have not been satisfied. New shapes arrive every week.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.

Time will not permit us to mention all our bargains in this line. But a few stanzas will convince you we are leading.

37 inch Red Flannels at 16 cents
36 inch Red Flannel—will hold water.....17 cents
Plaid Linsey.....10 cents per yard
Better Linsey.....15 cents per yard
Best White Linsey.....25 cents and 30 cents

Better Cotton Flannel.....7, 9 and 12 cents per cent
Best Shirting.....8 cents per yard
Good Shirting.....5 cents per yard
Brown Cotton.....5 and 6 cents per yard
Good Prints.....5 and 6 cents per yard
Numerous other things as cheap we could mention, but have not space. Come and see.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Well, every one knows that we have them low, because they come from the manufacturer to us. Last season we sold the Boots, we propose to do the same again this winter, but maybe a few prices for the benefit of those who were sorry they did not buy from us last season would not hurt:

Extra Childrens Boots 7-10 at.....90c
Whole Stock Boots 10-13 at.....$1.00
13-2 at.....1.35

" " " 3-5 at.....1.40
Mens " " 6-11 at.....1.50
" " " Best.....2.00 and 2.25
" " " Good Oil Grain.....2.25
" " " Best.....2.75
Childrens Best Split Shoe.....50c
Ladies Best Split Shoe.....75c
Childrens Whole Stock Shoes.....1.00 and 1.25
Ladies Best Whole Stock.....1.00 and 1.25
If these prices are not satisfactory, come and see for yourself. We ask the attention of men with large families to shoe.

IN CLOTHING,

Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods of all kinds, we can please you. An Overcoat or Suit from $3.50 to $30. Hats 25 cents to 85.

OUR EYES ARE OPEN AT ALL TIMES FOR BARGAINS!

We are Doing Our Utmost to Save Money for All Our Friends and Customers!

We Offer All a Cordial Invitation to Call and Inspect our Line, Especially Ladies who may Want a Nice Hat or Dress Pattern Before the Fair. Polite Attention paid to All. Remember the Place:

Chow-chow at Foster & Carson's.

Read Hoeker & Co.'s ad. in this issue. "Sara and Me" sell a corset for 40 cents.

"Sara and Me" sell a nice Cashmere Scarf, for 50 cents.

Howard's best crab cider at C. P. Westerfield & Son.

"Sara and Me" received more "Nellie Bly" Caps last night.

A new and pretty lot of solid gold ear-drops at Martin's.

Martin guarantees all his pebble spectacles to fit for 5 years.

Kid gloves at 65 cents, sold by "Sara Me" at Anderson's Bazaar.

Don't fail to see J. E. Fogle & Co.'s big bargain offer in this issue.

Don't forget the entertainment at the Court House to-morrow night.

Don't fail to attend the Hop at court house, Friday evening, Oct. 3.

The Fair Grounds, notwithstanding the recent rains, are comparatively dry.

If your watch needs repairing, call on Martin. He is the best jeweler in Kentucky.

A. A. Sanderfur's for groceries and confectioneries at astonishingly low prices.

For anything in the general grocery or confectionery line, go to Foster & Carson's.

You never, no never, did see as many pretty rings in your life as Martin, the jeweler, has.

Fresh oysters served in all styles at all hours at C. P. Westerfield & Son's during Fair week.

Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. is headquarters for anything usually kept in a first-class drug store.

Fresh oysters served in all styles to suit the customer at Foster & Carson's during the Fair.

For a good rig during the Fair, go to Casabier & Hoeker, on corner of Union and Market streets.

See the dress goods—one pattern only in a piece—now shown by "Sara and Me," at Anderson's Bazaar.

Fresh oysters served in any style to suit the customer at C. P. Westerfield & Son's during Fair week.

If you want to buy a good watch of any kind, cheaper than you ever read of, call on Martin, the jeweler.

For bargains in millinery, especially ribbons, during Fair week, call on "Sara and Me," at Anderson's Bazaar.

If you want a lunch during the Fair, call on Sullenger & Barnett, on Union street, and you can be accommodated.

Don't fail to see the millinery at Anderson's Bazaar. "Sara and Me" add new attractions to the stock every day.

"Sara and Me" sold more $1.99 shoes last week than ever before. The stock is complete now and all styles and sizes can be had.

Prescriptions carefully compounded from the freshest and purest drugs at Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.'s, at all hours day or night.

If you need anything in the drug, stationery or wall paper line, don't fail to call on Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., Hartford, Ky.

Question.—Where can I get some fresh oysters? Answer.—You can get all you want, served in any style at Foster & Carson's.

Westerfield & Son's trade is increasing all the time. The reason is, the people are beginning to find out where to go to save money.

If you want to raise good wheat, go to Westerfield & Son and get some of Metcalf's Fertilizer. It is the best. Try it and be convinced.

Smith & Johnson will run one or two of their elegant transfers from town to the Fair grounds during the week. All calls promptly answered.

Geo. Barnard's nephew, a young man whose name we were unable to obtain, had his leg broken while at work in the mines at McHenry Monday.

While you are casting your eyes around for good, neat rigs during the Fair, don't forget that Casabier & Hoeker's is headquarters for this line.

Westerfield & Son is the only house in town that can handle Alexander's cider, so when you want a drink of cider, it will pay you to go to them for it.

If you want a good pair of pebble or white flint spectacles, don't be humbugged by a peddling rooster, but buy them of the old reliable C. B. Martin.

C. P. Westerfield & Son have opened out an ice cream and fresh oyster saloon in the back room of their grocery store and will run same during Fair week.

A. A. Sanderfur, successor to L. B. Bean, is prepared to furnish you anything in the general grocery and confectionery line at prices to suit the times.

Sullenger & Barnett have for sale everything usually kept in a first-class general grocery store. Everything goes to rich and poor alike, at strictly 10 per cent profit. Give them a call for anything you need in their line and you will find this statement true.

C. P. Westerfield & Son say they are going to sell more goods this fall than they ever did, if they have to sell at cost. They are hustlers, and don't you forget it.

You will smile when you look at the handsome and pretty line of ladies and gents vest, queue and frock chains, that can be bought at about two-thirds the usual price at Martin's.

When talking about low prices, small profits and quick sales, don't forget to come around and call on Foster & Carson and see for yourself what bargains can be had in their line.

E. W. Taylor, successor to W. T. King, is headquarters for anything you may need in the feed or general livery line. Give him a call and be convinced. Satisfaction guaranteed.

All kinds of jewelry at Martin's, such as lace pins, ladies and gents cuff buttons, shirt studs, jersey pins, collar buttons, gold and silver spectacles and eyeglasses, all cheap for cash.

When you come to town don't forget that Westerfield & Son will sell you groceries cheaper than you can get them anywhere in town, for they are always in the lead with the freshest and newest goods.

A. A. Sanderfur, successor to L. B. Bean on Union Street, keeps constantly on hand any and everything usually kept in a first-class grocery and confectionery store. Quick sales and small profits is his motto.

Casabier & Hoeker will run a good, neat, comfortable conveyance from town to the Fair grounds this week. Any one wanting conveyance for the week, day or trip, will do well to confer with the above named gentlemen.

The best of rigs, the very politest attention at Casabier & Hoeker's, the liveliest men, who solicit your patronage. Satisfaction guaranteed. Remember the place, on the corner of Union and Market streets, Hartford, Ky.

Crit Taylor and James Brooks have rented the Red Front during Fair week, and have opened up a general eating saloon. They will also have constantly on hand the best of crab cider, ham sandwiches, &c. Give them a call.

Quite a party left Rockport last week for a visit to friends in Oklahoma and Texas. The party consisted of Mr. A. N. Brown and wife, Mrs. Perry Brown, George Gordon, Mrs. Dr. Layton, S. C. Hunter and others. They will spend a month or two in the South-west.

Rev. Jno. M. Crowe, pastor of St. Paul's church, Denver, Col., was in Hartford last week a few hours to see his home people. He preached at the Methodist church Wednesday night. A good audience assembled to hear him. They were not disappointed. As a pulpit orator he is eloquent and effective.

After the sermon, several minutes were spent shaking hands with the friends of his youthful days. He is one of the rising young ministers of his denomination and promises much for good in his work.

Parties having business with the Hartford Bank during Fair week, are notified that the Bank will be open at 9 o'clock a. m. and close at 12 o'clock noon.

For the best wearing shoe for winter wear you ever bought, try a pair of the Wear-for-ever's. Sold in this country by "Sara and Me" only, at Anderson's Bazaar.

Where are you going? Well, sir, I am going to Sullenger & Barnett's. What for? To buy groceries. Why do you go there? Because I can get groceries at strictly 10 per cent profit.

Mr. W. T. Hayward was at General Exercises, at the college, last Thursday morning, and favored the school with a choice lecture. Mr. Hayward is a pleasing lecturer, and his talk that morning was practical and entertaining.

The members of the Hartford Band will give a hop at the Court House Friday night. Like everything the band takes hold of, it will be a success. Arrangements are being made to have the entertainment first-class in every respect.

The hotel property recently purchased by Noel J. Burgess at Rockport, Ky., has been thoroughly renovated and repaired from cellar to garret, and is now one amongst the most conveniently arranged and best kept hotels in the Green river country. No one could be more painstaking and solicitous about the welfare and comfort of their guests than Mr. Burgess. He will, in the near future, build a large sample room adjoining his already commodious hotel for the better accommodation of the drummer trade.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilhite, of Utica, Daviess county, were the guests of Mrs. Mary J. Williams Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Wilhite came to see Dr. Pendleton for medical advice. Sometime last summer she sprained an ankle, as she supposed at that time. The wound grew worse and more painful until the trip to see Dr. Pendleton was decided on. Examination of the parts affected, proved that a bone had been broken and was still unknit. Drs. J. E. and E. B. Pendleton encased the limb in plaster of paris, which will be worn until nature unites the fractured bones.

Rev. J. B. Waggoner and wife left yesterday for his new field of labor at Dayton, Tenn. Bro. Waggoner during his stay in Hartford made many lasting friends. He preached his farewell sermon Sunday night to a crowded house. The discourse was appropriate and a feeling one. The speaker took occasion to allude to inconsistent actions of many members of the church and reminded his hearers that actions speak with no uncertain sound. After services, sometime was spent in bidding the pastor and his wife adieu, and wishing them abundant prosperity in their new home.

The roaring gas wells are a wonder, but none the more than the effect of Garter's magic chicken cholera cure. Sold and warranted by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

The County Clerk Sued.
A Lee Rowe has filed suit in the Ohio County Circuit Court against Rowan Holbrook for $3,400. The petition sets forth that Holbrook promised Rowe the position of Deputy County Clerk at a salary of $50 per month, and in the non-fulfillment of said promise, prays for full salary for the four years.

To the Public.
Having recently purchased the half interest owned by Mr. Virgil Renfrow in the merchandise business of the firm of V. & F. Renfrow at Hines Mill, I have launched out into the mercantile world alone, and am before you soliciting your kind patronage. I must say, that my associations in the past have been so very pleasant with you, that I feel no hesitancy in asking a reasonable share of your patronage. Thanking you for all past favors, I am as ever your faithful servant.
Fitzhugh Renfrow.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Hartford Bar on the Death of L. V. Graves.

At a meeting of the bar and officers of court, Hartford, Ky., Sept. 24, 1890, for the purpose of taking suitable action upon the death of L. V. Graves, an attorney at this bar, E. D. Guffy was chosen Chairman, and W. T. Hayward, Secretary.

On motion of J. P. Sanderfur, the chair appointed a committee on resolutions who reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Almighty God, who holds in His omnipotent hand the lives and destinies of all men, has in His Divine Providence, moved from our midst our esteemed and worthy fellow lawyer and friend, L. V. Graves, and

WHEREAS, His character as a lawyer and his many amiable and graceful accomplishments have universally deserved, and sincerely won our highest esteem, as a citizen and fellow member of the Hartford bar; therefore

RESOLVED, That we have heard of his death at his home in this county on the morning of this day with profound sorrow, and that while we feel his loss keenly, yet we will ever cherish a fond memory for him and strive to emulate his modest virtues and be encouraged by the noble deeds of a young life full of such manly promise as that fore-shadowed in him.

RESOLVED, That we tender our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family, in this their great affliction, and that the Hartford bar, in the death of our young brother, has lost one of its brightest and most useful members.

RESOLVED, That this preamble and these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Ohio Circuit, County and Quarterly Courts; a copy be tendered to the family of the deceased brother, and that these proceedings be presented to our county papers for publication.

RESOLVED, That the members of this bar attend the funeral of the deceased brother in a body.

J. E. FOGLE,
C. W. MASSIE,
H. P. TAYLOR, Com.
J. S. GRUNDY,
J. A. SMITH.

On motion of H. P. Taylor, the chair was directed to see that these resolutions are presented to the Circuit, County and Quarterly Courts for engrossment upon the records thereof, and that a copy of same is tendered to the family of the deceased.

The chair thereupon appointed J. P. Sanderfur to present these resolutions to the Circuit Court; B. D. Ringo to present them to the County Court, and J. S. R. Wedding to present them to the Quarterly Court.

On motion of J. E. Rowe, the chair appointed honorary pall-bearers, namely: C. W. Massie, J. P. Sanderfur, E. D. Guffy, J. A. Smith, L. P. Loney, W. G. Hardwick, H. P. Taylor, W. T. Hayward.

On motion of J. E. Rowe, adjourned. E. D. GUFFY, Clk'n.

W. T. HAYWARD, Sec'y.

Say some dealers who try to sell a substitute preparation when a customer calls for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Do not allow any such false statements as this induce you to buy what you do not want. Remember that the only reason for making it is that a few cents more profit will be made on the substitute.

Insist upon having the best medicine—Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is Peculiar to itself.
